Copenhagen, February 25. N. S. Feld-Marshal Wedet is expected here this Week, on his Way to his Command of the Danish Forces in Norway. We have received from Schonen the following Account of the present Situation of the two Armies. The Swedes are at Ausbye, four Leagues distant from Christianstadt; their advanced Guard is posted at the Bridge of Ausbye. The Head-Quarters of General Reventlau are at Siniklershokn, two Leagues from Ausbye, having under his Command the Grenadiers, one Battalion of Blochart, the Regiment of the Prince of Hesse, and the Marines; four Companies of Dragoons of the Regiment of Rotheistein, eight Companies of that of Sprengel, four hundred Dragoons being a Detachment of the Regiment of Bulow, and four Regiments of Cavalry; all which Troops are disposed in such a manner, that they may be assembled in the space of two hours. The Foot-Guards are at Christianstadt, the Regiment of the Prince-Royal within a quarter of a League from that Town, and Major-General Rotheistein is posted with eight Companies within a League to cover the Flank of the Army, and secure the Bridge of Forsée. These Troops are so disposed, that they may all join the General by a March of three hours. The Swedes are reported to be more numerous than the Danes, we therefore use all possible Endeavours to send them timely Reinforcements. A Regiment of Militia is this Week to be transported to Schonen, and we hear they will be speedily followed by the Horse-Guards.

Hanover, February 28. N. S. Yesterday about Noon the Hereditary Princess of Wolfembuttel died of the small Pox, after a Sickness of five Days. Her Highness is very much regretted by the whole Court, but in an especial manner by the Prince her Consort, who is this Day set out for Wolfembuttel, being accompanied by Duke Lewis, his Dutchess, and also the Prince of Bevern. The Body of the Defunct will speedily be conducted to the same Place. Their Electoral Highnesses, and the whole Court, are already gone into Mourning on this Occasion. Yesterday Monsieur Gromkow passed through this City. The Senate of Stockholm have ordered General Welling, who is now at Hamburgh, to take a Journey to Bender, with a Commission from the Regency to the King of Sweden; the Administrator of Holstein hath also dispatched a Gentleman of his Bed-chamber to that Prince. They write from Hamburgh, that four Danish Regiments are on their March, in order to be transported to Sweden.

Hague, March 4. N. S. Yesterday there was a Congress of the Ministers of the Allies, at which the Imperial and British Plenipotentiaries assisted. Monsieur Meyndershagen, Commissary of the Prussian Troops in Flanders, hath delivered in his Credentials to the States-General, as Resident from the King of Prussia. The Lottery which was proposed for raising two Millions of Florins not being more than half full, the States have thought fit that the Tickets given out for that Lottery should be drawn; and that Proposals more advantageous to the Adventurers should be made, for levying two Millions of Florins above what was brought in on the former. The Project of this Lottery hath been already published: The Substance of which is, that it is to consist of eight thousand Tickets of two hundred and fifty Florins each, of those Tickets thirteen hundred are to be Prizes. The Blank Tickets bear seven per Cent. Interest, whereas, by the former Project, they were to receive only six. The States of Holland have signified to the Officers of their Troops, that unless their Companies appear compleat before the 25th Instant, pursuant to a former Order of this State, the Penalties which are to be inflicted in case of Neglect, shall be executed with the utmost Severity. General Gromkow is expected here this Evening from Berlin, being appointed by his Prussian Majesty to confer with the Duke of Marlborough concerning the Terms whereon the Prussian Troops are to continue in the Service of her Britannick Majesty. We have received an Account of the Regulation of the Duke of Anjou's Forces in Spain, and the State of the War for the ensuing Year; and it appears by the Repartition of their Forces, that the Court of Madrid proposes to have this Year one hundred and twenty two Battalions, and one hundred and forty five Squadrons on foot, including seventeen Battalions that are not yet raised. They write from the Frontiers, that part of the Walloon Troops which were designed for Spain, have been commanded to continue in Flanders 'till further Orders. Letters from Warsaw, bearing Date the 16th of February, give us an Account of the Proceedings of the General Council of Poland now Sitting: At the first of their Sessions several Difficulties arose about the Method of their Debates; the Deputies of the Nobility insisted, that it would be most convenient that they should deliberate on Affairs before they were communicated to the Senators; but it was determined, that the Senators should continue their Sessions, and that their Resolutions should be transmitted to the Deputies of the Nobles to receive their Approbation. The Subject of their Consultations, since the Commencement of their Assembly, hath been on the most proper Expedient to restore the Tranquility of the Kingdom, unite the Affections of the Inhabitants, support King Augustus on the Throne, and to procure a General Act of Indemnity and Oblivion for all his Majesty's Subjects. In order to this, it was resolved to prosecute the War with vigour against Sweden; to request his Czarish Majesty that his Troops in Poland be recalled; that a sufficient Army of the Crown be raised and maintained at the Expence of the States of the Kingdom; and that Ministers be dispatched to the respective Courts of Europe, in order to cultivate a good Understanding between that and Foreign Crowns. These Letters add, that his Majesty being seated on the Throne on the 10th of the last Month, Count Denhof, Grand Marshal of the Confederacy, addressed the Assembly in a very elegant Discourse, setting forth the Divisions and Distractions of the Kingdom, and also the most proper Measures to remove these Calamities. The Bishop of Warmia, Chancellor of the Crown, answering in the King's Name, that his Majesty had always had a special regard to the Welfare and Prosperity of Poland, delivered in to the Assembly his Majesty's Proposals for restoring the Kingdom to its forme
